

Figure 3: Pre-treatment panoramic radiograph. Panoramic radiograph showed a complete dentition except for the absence of both maxillary third molars. The bone level and density were within normal limits and the maxillary sinuses were clear. Asymmetrical short condyles revealed some degree of remodeling and asymmetrical position.