

Figure 6: Post-treatment panoramic radiograph. Panoramic radiograph at the end of treatment shows good root alignment, no additional bone loss and bone remodeling on the anterior surface of the condyle. Noticeable reduction in the size of the nasal polyp is also noted.