

Figure 9: Post-treatment frontal view of cone-beam computed tomography (CBCT) scan. A) Post-treatment lateral view of CBCT scan showed an overall improvement of the NSD (vertical dotted line) and a correction of mandibular cant (horizontal red lines). Note the leveling of the nasal cavity floor. B) Correction of the NSD and absence of the nasal polyp (white arrows on B and C)