

Figure 5: Post-treatment portrait and intra-oral photographs. Post-treatment lateral portrait photograph shows an improved facial profile and upper and lower lip positioning relative to the E-plane. The post-treatment frontal resting photo shows maintained facial symmetry, maintained lip competence, and maintained even facial thirds. Intraoral photographs show correction of the anterior crossbite and Class I canine and molar bilaterally.