

Figure 1: Intra-oral manifestation of a patient with Nemaline Myopathy. Intraoral images of the patient demonstrated severe open bite, severe retroclination of mandibular anterior teeth, severe crowding in the lower arch, severe overjet, and divergent upper and lower occlusal planes.