

Figure 3: Panoramic radiography of a patient with Nemaline Myopathy. Initial panoramic radiograph shows all teeth fully developed, the absence of 4 premolars, rounded dental roots, long and narrow condylar neck, short coronoid process, marked antegonial notch. All teeth were fully developed. The mesial inclination of the maxillary and mandibular posterior teeth was prominent, typical of anterior open bite cases.