

Figure 2: Pre-treatment panoramic radiograph. The panoramic radiograph reveals a complete dentition with 28 erupted permanent teeth and two impacted mandibular third molars. The roots of all teeth are fully developed, but there were signs of blunting on the maxillary second premolars. Remodeling of the condyles was also observed.